II.1.4) Short description

Drug and Alcohol Services are provided through commissioned services in Northumberland. The services provide pharmacological, psychosocial, harm reduction, and recovery support interventions and treatment to residents of Northumberland. The current service is commissioned to address drug and/or alcohol misuse in a holistic way, regardless of the substance of use.

We are currently reviewing drug and alcohol provision as part of a recommissioning process and would like to know what you think is important for future service delivery. We are interested in your views as a stakeholder and would appreciate your feedback to help shape future provision. All feedback will be reviewed and will contribute to shaping the service going forward.
