II.1.4) Short description

Scottish Water currently has a large ULA Support agreement with Oracle that provides support and maintenance services on a significant number of legacy products within our on-premise IT estate. Scottish Water have recently completed a Technology Refresh programme that has de-risked our IT estate and upgraded many of our core business applications to new solutions in the cloud. Due to this Scottish Water no longer require support for the majority our Oracle legacy products. However Scottish Water does require support and maintenance for a small number of legacy products that we need to maintain until the remainder of our IT estate is upgraded. Scottish Water is looking to procure a new support and maintenance service for the remaining legacy products which include but are not limited to WebLogic and OBIEE. Depending on the progress of ongoing projects, Scottish Water may also require support and maintenance services for Oracle on-premise databases, Peoplesoft HCM, SOA and BPM.
