II.1.4) Short description

Nottingham City Council are seeking suitably qualified and experienced Pharmacies to deliver community based Locally Commissioned Public Health Services (LCPHS) in sexual health, to citizens living within Nottingham City Boundaries, for a 3 year period from 1st April 2022 with potential contract extensions of a further 3+3 years.

The overall accreditation contract value is estimated to be £100,000 per annum which will be paid for services provided across all successful applicants.

The key aim of these sexual health LCPHSs is to ensure primary care can offer citizens access to a range of sexual health services including contraception and asymptomatic sexually transmitted infections (STI) testing.

This contract will be let under the Light Touch Regime of the Public Contract Regulations 2015. The accreditation contract will remain open to new applications for the duration of the lifetime of the contract.

Application documents can be downloaded from www.eastmidstenders.org. Closing date for receipt of initial completed Application Forms is 12 noon 7 February 2022.
