II.1.4) Short description

Gillingham School is one of the oldest schools in Dorset, indeed in the country. The history of how it started continues to have benefits for the school that we have today, and we hope that the spirit in which it was founded is still reflected in our culture and ethos. Gillingham School provides education for all types of young people in our area: boys and girls; rich and poor; academic, sporty, artistic, practical or caring. Students achieve across the whole breadth of school life and all its facets – they are a credit to their school, their families and themselves, and we are very proud of them. We believe in the value of education in its broadest sense:• that may be excellence in sport, or enthusiasm for engaging in a healthy lifestyle;• it may be the skills to play a musical instrument or a lifelong appreciation of the arts;• some will take a particular skill or knowledge that they have learned, that is important to them;• some will leave with a sense of what is right, of ho
