Any selection of tenderers will be based solely on the criteria set out for the procurement. All communications shall be in English. Any contract or agreement resulting from any invitation to tender will be considered as a contract made in England according to English Law and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

The OC does not bind itself to accept any tender and reserves the right to accept any part of the tender unless the tenderer expressly stipulates to the contrary. The Freedom of Information Act 2000 imposes a statutory obligation on public bodies to make information they are holding available on request. Tenderers should be aware of the OC's obligations under the Act, whereby information provided by tenderers in response to this advertisement may be requested by a third party. The OC expressly reserves the right:

(i) to make whatever changes it may see fit to the content and structure of the procurement process;

(ii) to require further information or clarification from a tenderer before considering its response;

(iii) to exclude a tenderer from the procurement process if it is determined that any information supplied is/was inaccurate, incomplete or untrue and is/was relied upon for selection purposes;

(iv) to cancel this procurement at any stage; and

(v) not to award any contract as a result of the procurement process commenced by publication of this notice.

(vi) to award this contract to the second place tenderer if negotiations cannot be concluded, at the OC's discretion, with the first place tenderer or the first place tenderer becomes insolvent and/or suffers financial distress.

(vii) to award further works in accordance with reg. 32(9) Public Contracts Regulations.

Under no circumstances will the OC or any of its advisers, be liable for any costs or expenses borne by any tenderer or any of its advisers in responding to this contract notice or at any stage in the process.
