II.1.4) Short description

Cumberland Council employs approx. 4,500 staff. The focus of this Procurement is the Council's 4,500 workforce training requirements. There also may be a requirement for some external partners of the council to access training.

Integral to this approach to procuring learning and development is the Council's intent to ensure that all staff can access high quality learning and development opportunities, but also to ensure there is job role specific training around the safe, legal and compliance requirements within Cumberland Council, and supporting recruitment and retention strategies.

There will be a specific element around social value. Delivery may be at a local level to ensure accessibility, however there is an expectation that all staff will receive a consistent opportunity and quality of provision irrespective of where they are geographically located. Providers will need to operate in a flexible way to ensure access to training provision for staff based across the County.

This lot is related to employees working in the Adult Social Care and Housing directorate. These are roles such as Team Managers, Mental Health Professionals, Social Workers, Occupational Therapists, Social Care Workers, Rehabilitation Officers, Housing Officers, front-line administration, and business support.

Mental Health Services in Cumbria are established on an integrated model and training relates also to social care members of the Mental Health Teams.

A large amount of the training required from this lot relates to frontline services. All training should focus on practice experience to embed and underpin the theory side of any learning.

Training should be aligned with national bodies, standards and frameworks covering health and social care policy and legislation, for example (but not limited to) Social Work England, the Health and Care Professions Council, Skills for Care, National Health Service (NHS) and the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE) guidance, as well as national and local policy perspectives around initiatives such as End of Life Care, Dementia and Dignity.

Cumbria Adults Safeguarding Board (known as CSAB) is regarded as our partner organisation and provides the policies and procedures for safeguarding in Cumbria.

Employees accessing training from this lot will be based in Workington and Carlisle. The majority of staff will work Monday to Friday between the hours of 09:00 and 17:00, training will be expected to be delivered during these times. Innovative approaches to delivery incorporating technology and distance learning should also be considered. Full contextualisation to Cumberland Council policies, procedures and behaviours should be adopted wherever possible. And all courses training must include strength-based approaches and methodology.

Each element in this lot should be treated as a stand-alone short programme, although we would look for continuity in provider, where possible, for topics requiring initial / refresher courses.

Lot 6 – Professional Services

The list of training requirements within this lot are delivered to Cumberland Council employees who work at various levels within our workforce structure ranging from Corporate Directors to front line operational staff. The specifications will cover a wide variety of job roles for instance: Accountants, Trading Standards Officers, Solicitors and Legal Assistants.

Our employees work in a variety of services Including: Procurement, Digital / ICT, Programme Management, HR/Organisational Development, Public Health, Community Safety, Trading Standards, Private Sector Housing, Active Cumbria, Finance, Assets and Fleet Management, Democratic, Legal, Libraries, Revenues and Benefits, Registrars, Communications, Scrutiny, Strategy and Policy. In addition, this lot covers the corporate wide leadership and management, culture, and transformation programmes, for the whole Cumberland Council workforce.

The Legal service provides professional, high quality legal advice and services across the Council. Democratic Services ensure that the Cumberland Council has modern and fit for purpose governance arrangements which enable Members and Executive Directors to take decisions in a timely way and with all relevant information. Training for this service area will be dynamic requirements that arise in year around matters arising and legislative updates. These professionals need to demonstrate continuing competence to make sure solicitors can do their jobs to the standard expected of them. Public Health/Public Protection –Restrict access to tobacco and alcohol by children and young people. Disrupt the supply of counterfeit tobacco and alcohol. Restrict the supply of unsafe and mis- described food. Disrupt unlawful trading in relation to the high street supply of new psychoactive substances.

Training delivery where applicable should be aligned with industry standards, national standards, regulation, legislation, and applicable awarding bodies criteria. Also, where applicable, course materials and content should be mapped to any relevant national standards / frameworks. The conditions for any assessment / examination required must meet with the controlled assessment regulations for the qualifications.

Each element in this lot should be treated as a stand-alone short programme, although we would look for continuity in provider, where possible, for topics requiring initial / refresher courses. Include any costings for the hire of equipment, venues (if non-Cumberland Council), course/learning materials, registration, and accreditation etc.

To meet the needs of our operations and working hours a flexible approach to the start and finish times of the courses may be required and will be specified at direct award or mini - competition stage.

Innovative approaches to delivery incorporating technology and distance learning should also be considered. Full contextualisation to Cumberland Council policies and procedures should be adopted wherever possible.
