II.1.4) Short description

Watford Grammar School for Boys is a partially selective academy for boys in Watford in Hertfordshire, founded by Dame Elizabeth Fuller in 1704. The school became an Academy in 2010 and continues to develop generations of young men who, when they leave school, are fully rounded individuals with a host of skills and experiences that equip them for the many opportunities and challenges they will face in life.

The school has over 1,500 students drawn from a wide catchment area which adds a rich variety of cultures to the school community.

The school is undertaking a procurement exercise to source a school meals catering supplier for a 3 year contract (plus possible extension on a +1year, +1year basis) from 22nd July 2023.

The successful supplier is to provide a healthy, high quality and value for money catering service to all school students, staff and visitors, along with hospitality as required.
