The Requirement

Please read the Annex 52 - Responsible Procurement Document Dec 22v.4to support your responses.

Trivallis is a responsible business and making a positive impact on society to improve the social, environmental, economic and financial wellbeing across our communities of Rhondda Cynon Taff and Cardiff Bay is important to us.

A priority for Trivallis is to support our customers through the high cost of living crisis, helping to alleviate poverty by delivering community benefit opportunities. We will work in partnership with you, our constructor partner, to do this.

Please summarise below how you would support in our commitment to give back to our communities through community benefit and social value programmes and provide us with some information on how you have achieved this previously.

Responses to this section will be shared with our Senior Manager Partnerships who will contact you 3 weeks following your agreed contract date to develop an individual community benefit plan with you, if you are successful.
