II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Health Education England (HEE) is seeking to commission an education provider who will provide a high-quality reflective parenting intervention training programme to practitioners across the 75 eligible Local Authorities (LA), whether they have paid or volunteer positions. The aim of this procurement is to upskill practitioners, enabling them to deliver evidence-based reflective parenting interventions in their local area to better support local families in improving the quality of parent-infant relationships.

It is desired that through this training, practitioners are upskilled in how to deliver a reflective parenting programme, resulting in more of such programmes being delivered across the 75 LAs. As there are already developed, evidence-based programmes within the market, we are seeking to purchasing an 'off the shelf' product.
