The contracting authority invites providers of speech and language services to attend an online market warming event on Monday 22nd January 2024.

Following on from the recent feedback given by providers who participated in the previous market engagement exercise the contracting authority will be holding a market warming event to inform interested bidders of the new services that will be tendered in early February 2024.

The event will be an opportunity for prospective bidders to hear in more detail from commissioners about the respective services and to share information in regards to:

- Service model
- Tender process and timeline

The event will take place via Microsoft Teams from 11am to 12:30pm. Interested providers are asked to confirm their attendance by completing the table included in the attachment to this notice and submitting it via the portal. A link to the event will be provided to interested providers.
