II.1.4) Short description

The Welsh Government (“WG”/“the Client”) has acquired land at Slade Lane, Haverfordwest (“the site”) to unlock its development potential and ability to deliver well-designed, sustainable and affordable homes in readiness for disposal to a third party capable of implementing delivery. To achieve this, we are inviting proposals from the open market to masterplan the site in a way which aligns with the WG’s policy aspirations, including (but not limited to) 50% affordable across the site, WDQR 2021 standards across all homes and moving along the pathway to net zero living. Additionally, we expect proposals to deliver social value and public benefits.

Therefore, we need to appoint a consultant (the “Lead Consultant”) who will design and masterplan the site, ensure that the existing allocation is retained in the replacement Local Development Plan, and then, submit an outline planning application on the WG’s behalf.

You should split this section into “project directors” and “project implementors”. We are primarily interested in who is going to actually deliver the commission i.e. the implementors. Please, don’t load your tender with the CV’s of high profile individuals if they are not going to contribute much to the task. This section should include a clear indication of the skills that will be available and exercised by the consultancy in the execution of the commission.
2. Inspect the site, review all currently available documentation, current relevant WG policy and advise as to the full scope of work required to deliver the purpose (above), including any survey work, site investigations as well as any design work and securing/creating any technical information.
3. Provide a programme of activity for the scope of work proposed, including consultation with DCFW, and all survey and design work etc., with substantial completion of activity, ready for application to the LPA by Autumn 2024 / within [24] weeks[LH1] .
4. Report to the project board monthly.
5. Provide a quote and supporting assurance such as: Insurance

The Contractor shall hold and maintain in respect of the provisions of the Services, as a minimum:

1. public liability insurance with a limit of indemnity of not less than five million pounds (GBP 5,000,000) in relation to any one claim or series of claims;
2. employer liability insurance with a limit of indemnity of not less than five million pounds (GBP 5,000,000) or in accordance with any legal requirement for the time being in force, if higher, in relation to any one claim or series of claims; and

3. professional indemnity insurance with a limit of indemnity of not less than five hundred thousand pounds (GBP 500,000) in relation to any one claim or series of claims and shall ensure that all professional consultants or sub-contractors involved in the provision of the Services hold and maintain appropriate cover.

1. The Client will require copyright of all documents produced and will retain exclusive rights to publication subject to making due acknowledgement to the supplier in any publicity. All documents produced by the Consultant its sub consultants and contractors must be assignable to third parties. The Consultant shall include in its tender the cost of assigning all documents, reports drawings etc.

2. At the end of the commission and prior to final payment, all work must be provided to the client in an electronic format suitable for storage on WG systems.

3. Welsh Language Requirements: The Employer is committed to promoting and facilitating the use of the Welsh language, and to not treat the Welsh language less favourably than English.

4. Freedom of Information Act: The Employer is committed to open government and operates under a Code of Practice on Public Access to Information to meeting their responsibilities under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Any information that Consultants submit as part of their response may need to be disclosed in response to a request under the Act.
