II.1.4) Short description

Bournemouth, Christchurch, and Poole Council (BCP Council) are hosting an online market engagement event on Wednesday 5th February at 13:00-14:00 to promote our commissioning intentions for a new Street Outreach Support Service.

This market engagement event is open to all providers who have an interest in the delivery of Street Outreach Support Services. The event will offer providers with the opportunity to learn more about BCP Council's vision to end homelessness across Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole by ensuring everyone has a safe place to call home, overview of BCP Council's latest rough sleeping data and find out about the procurement process.

We will also be sharing with you an overview of the collaboration work being undertaken with Homelessness Partnership BCP, Homewards, and other organisations and partners across Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole to achieve our vision.

It is expected that the new Street Outreach Support Service will make a positive contribution towards BCP Council's Homelessness and Rough Sleeping Strategy core aims.

The Street Outreach Support Service tender opportunity is due to be published on Supplying the Southwest in March/April 2025.

To register for the market engagement event please send an email to Housingcontractsteam@bcpcouncil.gov.uk by Monday 3rd February at midday with your First and Last Name and organisation name.

Participation or non-participation in this market engagement event shall not prejudice organisations participating in any future procurement process nor is it intended that any information supplied shall place any organisation at an advantage in any forthcoming procurement process.
