II.2.4) Description of the procurement

NHS Devon Integrated Care Board (NHS Devon ICB) are seeking the provision of High Intensity User services in Torbay and South Devon. The focus of the work will include identification, early intervention and effective management of patients frequently attending the Emergency Department at Torbay South Devon Foundation Trust.

Core principles of the NHSE HIU model are that it is an assertive outreach service and does not punish people for being in crisis; instead, it provides a de-medicalised view of support and offers a personable, human touch. The key service principles are:

- Identify
- Personalise
- De-escalate
- Discharge
- Manage relapses.
- Quality of intervention

The HIU service offers a robust way of supporting people who make high intensity use of Torbay and South Devon Foundation Trust (TSDFT) urgent and emergency care services.
