Options

The right to additional purchases while the contract is valid.

The satisfactory performance of the contract may be jeopardised by the following risks, which by their nature, are unable to be addressed in the contract as awarded:

The changing needs and requirements of the Council and the changing demands placed on the Council by its customers. Increases or decreases in funding - such as reductions or additions in budget allocations as part of the Council's budget setting processes, or as a consequence of additional funding streams which were unknown at the time of awarding the contract, but which are provided to increase the volume and scope of services delivered

Changes in legislation or national guidance

The identification of additional service recipients, not originally captured by the scope of the contract.

Opportunities offered by emerging/new technologies.

Materialisation of any of the identified risks may result in a permitted modification under Schedule 8 of the Procurement Act 2023.

The highways contract shall bind respective successors and permitted assigns of WCC. A public authority may become a successor to WCC or to a Non-Lead Authority by reason of the Local Government (Structural Changes) (Transfer of Functions, Property, Rights and Liabilities) Regulations 2008 or otherwise.

If more than one public authority succeeds WCC, prior to such succession, WCC notifies the Contractor of the successor to be the Client.
