II.1.4) Short description

Partners across Greater Essex are working together to commission a new offer for domestic abuse victim and perpetrator support services and programmes for adults and children to be launched April 2025.

This is a really exciting opportunity, and we want to engage with any providers who have an interest in this work. We are starting with an initial session that will share the findings and the new proposed model of delivery as we move to the next phase of the commissioning programme.

We will be hosting a virtual engagement event on the 1st February 2024 at 10:30. To book a place on this event please contact Isabelle.Clarke@essex.gov.uk
