II.1.4) Short description

The Provision of Official control food interventions and food premises inspections for Leeds City Council (LCC), City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council (BMDC), and Wakefield Metropolitan District Council (WMDC). The Food Safety Act 1990 and associated legislation place statutory duties on local authorities to carry out Official Controls and other food related regulatory activities. To meet these statutory duties and deliver Official Controls, Leeds City Council (LCC), City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council (BMDC), and Wakefield Metropolitan District Council (WMDC) provide a food hygiene and safety regulatory function within their authorities. This function includes carrying out Official Control food interventions including food hygiene inspections at food premises within their respective areas as part of their annual risk based intervention programmes and service plans. LCC, BMDC and WMDC are seeking a single external provider to support the respective food intervention programmes of each authority in their areas through the provision of the specified Official Controls and food interventions.

VI.4.3) Review procedure

Precise information on deadline(s) for review procedures

The authority will incorporate a minimum 10 calendar day standstill period at the point information on the award of the contract is communicated to tenderers. This period allows unsuccessful tenderers to seek further information from the contracting authority before the contract is entered into.

Such additional information should be requested from the addressee found in I.1. If an appeal regarding the award of a contract has not been successfully resolved the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 (SI 2015 No 102) provide for aggrieved parties who have been harmed or are at risk of harm by a breach of the rules to take action in the High Court (England, Wales and Northern Ireland). Any such action must be brought promptly (within 30 days beginning with the date when the economic operator first knew or ought to have known that grounds for such action had arisen).

Where a contract has not been entered into the court may order the setting aside of the award decision or order the authority to amend any document and may award damages.

Following the correct implementation of a 10 day standstill period and publication of appropriate notices the court may only award damages once the contract has been entered into
