Natural Resources Wales (NRW) is looking to appoint a suitably skilled and experienced consultant to:

Stage 1

i) Detailed evaluation of Natural Beauty and Recreation

- Identify Evaluation Areas as sub-divisions of the Area of Search to provide a more manageable scale for evaluation of the area in question.
- Evaluate each Evaluation Area for natural beauty in accordance with NRW's procedural guidance on assessing land for designation and the natural beauty factors and criteria set out in the guidance.
- Evaluate each Evaluation Area as to whether it affords sufficient opportunities for outdoor recreation according to the criteria set out in the procedural guidance.
- Identify areas that appear likely to be able to meet the natural beauty and outdoor recreation criteria, termed Candidate Areas.

ii) Desirability to designate

- Contribute to judgement as to whether it is especially desirable to designate - for the National Park purposes to apply to the area.

iii) Draft designation boundary

- Define a boundary for the whole area in detail in accordance with explicit boundary-setting considerations.

Stage 2

iv) Public consultation support and report

- Provide technical support to the public consultation on the proposed area for a potential National Park.
- Provide technical consultation report and recommend any changes to the Draft boundary.

Stage 3

v) Public inquiry support

- Provide technical support to any potential public inquiry on a proposed National Park.

Natural Resources Wales (NRW) is intending to award a fixed term, three stage contract of approximately three years in total, commencing in April 2024.
