II.1.4) Short description

Hertfordshire County Council (the 'Council') is carrying out Pre-Procurement Market Engagement ('PPME') in relation to Learning Management Systems and Online Learning Catalogue. The Council will consider the feedback received to help inform the Council's options and further decision making. For the avoidance of doubt, this stage of the project is not part of a formal procurement process and the Council is not committing, at this stage, to carrying out such a process. Participation or non-participation in the PPME shall not prevent any supplier participating in a potential future procurement, nor is it intended that any information supplied as part of the PPME shall place any supplier at an advantage in a potential procurement process. Participation in the PPME will be at each organisation's own cost. No expense in responding to this PPME will be reimbursed by the Council

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Council currently has a Learning Management System (LMS) called iLearn+. In addition to this there is also access to a catalogue of eLearning that can be used and adapted as the Council requires via an authoring tool. The Council has had an LMS since 2008 and it is an integral part of how the Council runs and delivers its Learning and Development offering. It is administered by several L&D teams throughout the organisation who require different access levels/permissions. The current contract for both the Learning Management System and online catalogue of eLearning is due to expire in April 2022.
