Tender Clarification Number 4

Q1 Form of tender: Paragraph 4 - We confirm that we agree the contract and undertake that in the event of our tender being accepted to execute the contract with XX weeks (Contractor to insert) from the date on which we receive notification that our tender is successful and, in the interim, provide the works in accordance with the contract.

Can you please confirm what you mean when you refer to 'execute the contract'. Is this the length of time we propose it will take us to carry out the specific works/services that we are bidding for or is it when we could commence the work following successful appointment?

A1. This relates to the length of time proposed to carry out the specific workstreams / services identified following on from appointment
