II.1.4) Short description

The City of Edinburgh Council wishes to appoint contractors to a Framework Agreement to deliver repairs and maintenance works to the Council's domestic estate. The Framework Agreement will be utilised to support the Council's internal team for specialist works and services, and in times of high demand.

The services will be required in three main operational areas:- Responsive Repairs, Empty Homes and Planned Works. The size and nature of the works will vary widely, but to give an indication of the scale, it may consist of works such as minor repairs to taps up to a full bathroom installation, small repairs to previous installed electrical components to full rewire of properties, external door painting to full decoration of properties, plastering patch work to skim coating walls and ceilings.

The Framework is split into 5 Lots:

- Lot 1 – Internal Works
- Lot 2 – External Works
- Lot 3 – Jetting & Drainage Works
- Lot 4 – Preservation Works
- Lot 5 – Scaffolding Services

The estimated value of the Framework Agreement is GBP10,000,000 – GBP12,500,000 per annum and the Framework Agreement will run from 1st April 2026 – 31st March 2030.
