II.1.4) Short description

UKRI wishes to establish a contractual agreement to provide Total Facilities Management (TFM) to the British Geological Survey (BGS) sites. The requirement is expected to include a range of services and is intended to maximise the efficiency and effectiveness of our operations.

The requirement is likely to cover the following services:

- building maintenance services
- grounds maintenance services
- security services
- cleaning services
- minor and reactive works
- miscellaneous FM services
- minor project works

Interested parties should note; the contract scope is not yet finalised and may/may not include all of the above services.

The core requirement is to service BGS Head Office at Keyworth, Nottinghamshire. BGS has smaller sites across the UK, which may require a smaller selection of FM services.
