The UK Health Security Agency (UKHSA) is responsible for protecting every member of every community from the impact of infectious diseases, chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear incidents and other health threats. UKHSA was formed in April 2021. The Radon Group, which was previously part of Public Health England, is based at Chilton and has been undertaking research and testing for radon gas in homes and workplaces for over 30 years.

The UKHSA's Radon Group requires a Supplier in addition to their own production of radon monitors to support their radon measurement service. A Supplier is sought to provide the requisite passive monitors and analysis services.
