Stansted Airport would like to invite interested parties in this opportunity to the airport to participate in a Supplier Day. Our airport commercial team can explain the opportunity, provide information about Stansted's transformation programme that will see passengers increase to 43m passengers. This will also be an opportunity for us to talk through our exciting plans to transform the current Coach Station. We would then like to discuss and listen to suppliers to understand how they see the onward travel market today and the opportunities open to Stansted Airport.

The day which we will be inviting suppliers to Stansted Airport is Wednesday 14th February 2024.

II.2.14) Additional information

If you are interested in participating in the Supplier Day, please follow the instructions detailed in this notice.
