II.1.4) Short description

Health Education England and the University of Nottingham School of Medicine is seeking a single site provider to host all clinical phase formative and summative OSCEs which will take place in the new curriculum as part of the FFP and AP modules.

Potential providers would also be bidding to deliver the remaining iterations of the 'old curriculum' OSCEs, covering the transitional period between the two curricula.

From 2021/22 onwards there will be a significant increase in student numbers as students from the University of Nottingham Lincoln Medical School (LMS) will feed into the clinical course in the new clinical phase curriculum
