Services

II.1.4) Short description

The Western Health and Social Care Trust (WHSCT) and the Southern Health and Social Care Trust (SHSCT) on behalf of CAWT (Co-operation and Working Together) MACE Project seeks to appoint suitably qualified service providers to a Dynamic Framework Agreement; to deliver a variety of Trauma Informed and Trauma Specific interventions for families who have child / children aged 0-3 years and/or 11-13 years; who are at risk of experiencing multiple adversities in their lives. Through early identification, intervention and provision of nurturing support within the family home and communities; these interventions build resilience. The Tender is structured in Lots by geographic area. In order to promote local service delivery of interventions and facilitate smaller service providers, Tenderers will be entitled to tender for a local area smaller than the entire Lot area and / or a single intervention regardless of whether they can deliver all interventions across that entire area or not.
