The Council's LCPF has been in existence since 2013 providing 'emergency payments' to assist with fuel and food poverty.

The budget for Bristol's LCPF emergency payments has been set at £200,000 pa since 2017 but has increased since the outbreak of COVID 19 up to £1m, in part due to additional government funding.

Effective delivery of the Emergency Payment element of Bristol City Council's LCPF will contribute to these strategic objectives:

- Helping as many people as possible to live independently in their own homes;
- Preventing poverty and potential homelessness wherever possible;
- Preventing family breakdown and the need for children, young people or adults to enter public care ;
- Improving energy efficiency and reducing fuel poverty.
