The Provider should ensure that a sufficient reserve of staff is available to meet the service specification during holidays or absences, even if the service demand appears minimal.
- Provide an excellent clinical service, with consistent and reliable support for managers and staff;
- Provide timely intervention and rehabilitation, including assessing the impact of work on individuals' health, and the impact of the individual's health on their work;
- Contribute to reducing the incidence of illness and injury caused by work;
- Promote well-being;
- Engage in assessing health needs and designing services to support them, alongside contributing to health at work related strategies;
- Provide an online referral system, accessible to all staff.
- Maintain a vaccination recall system on a monthly basis;
- To assist the CSU, CCGs and the Authorities in discharging its duties and responsibilities and general support in connection with the occupational health of its employees.
- Measure performance of the service against agreed key performance indicators and provide regular activity reports to the Authorities for the purpose of management/Board reports where required;
- Provide information to support the CSU, CCG or the Authorities in the production of their annual quality account, which includes demonstrating commitments to staff in line with the NHS Constitution, where applicable.
- To provide the Authorities with an annual audit plan and provide periodic reports demonstrating actions that have been taken as a result of audit.
