The London Borough of Camden ('the Authority') is seeking to award a contract for the provision of Camden Mental Health Individual Placement Support Service.

Recommissioning of the IPS employment Support Services is required as the current contract is due to end on 31st March 2025. North Central London Integrated Care Board and the Department of Work & Penson, Work & Health Unit, have significantly increased investment to enable more people to successfully find and sustain paid employment.

The new contract is broken down into two service elements

- Model 1: Mental Health Individual Placement Support Service - in Secondary Care
- Model 2: Mental Health Individual Placement Support Service - in NHS Talking Therapies Service

The Council has reviewed and upgraded its payment processes and is now able to offer the Supplier Incentive Scheme. For a small rebate our target is to pay invoices within 10 days, or earlier, after the receipt of a valid invoice. The Council therefore recommends Suppliers participate in the Supplier Incentive Scheme to improve their cash flow and ensure enhanced liquidity within your supply chain. Participation in the Supplier Incentive Scheme has therefore been included as part of this process and Suppliers are referred to the tender pack for further information.
