II.1.4) Short description

Nascot Wood Junior School is a high-achieving, multi-cultural learning environment that enables all children to achieve the highest possible standards. They pride themselves on their professionalism, equipping children for the demands of the future and encouraging them to aspire to make a difference to society.

The School offer a broad, balanced curriculum that is tailored to the needs of their children, fostering and developing a thirst for life-long learning.

Nascot Wood Infant School opened in 1976 and accommodates 180 children—30 in each of six classes (two in each of Reception, Year 1 and Year 2). It is a well-equipped and attractive environment with spacious classrooms. This provides quiet areas for thoughtful working, and generous space for group activities. The School also enjoy a delightful setting with access to a nature reserve, sports field, and a heated outdoor swimming pool, all of which they share with Nascot Wood Junior School. Their Nursery Unit opened in April 1997, and accommodates 60 children, 30 during each of two daily sessions.
