II.1.4) Short description

We would like to test the market to see what systems are available that meet our current and future requirements. Our requirements and technology have changed dramatically since we last completed a procurement. We would like to see what progress has been made with systems to support short term rehabilitation service as our current system is intended to be used for long term and not short-term services.

By sending out the PMC we will be able to assess systems available and the optimum duration of a contract that will be required to meet our needs as listed in this document.
