II.1.4) Short description

Zero additional value extensions to the contract extending the expiry date as below:

5th September 2023 to 31st March 2024

These were an extension of time only to allow for project delays via Reg 72.—(1) (e) where the modifications, irrespective of their value, are not substantial

This is a delayed publication of the modification as there was a discrepancy between the Atamis record which allowed for extensions and the original Contract Award Notice that had not allowed for the extensions, meaning it was mistakenly assumed to be an allowable Reg 72 that did not require a revised Notice
