II.1.4) Short description

Currently, TCE maintains two separate storage contracts. Legal documents, including leases, licenses, and statutory declarations for our assets, are stored with one provider under a specific contract ending 6 July 2025.

Meanwhile, our paper policy and correspondence files are stored with a different provider under a separate contract ending 19 October 2025.

We now require a single contract with one supplier ('the Supplier') to provide all three services. This approach is expected to enhance efficiency and reduce costs.
