II.1.4) Short description

Founded in 1911, The Henrietta Barnett School (HBS) is a non-denominational grammar school for girls aged 11-18. Located in the peaceful Hampstead Gardens Suburb, London, the school became an Academy in April 2012. Founded by Dame Henrietta Barnett, the school continues to develop generations of young women who, when they leave school, are fully rounded individuals with a host of skills and experiences to make a positive difference to society and will equip them for the many opportunities and challenges they will face in life.

The school has over 800 students, including a thriving Sixth Form, who are not only drawn to the school because of its reputation as one of the top state schools in the country, but also for the friendly, vibrant community that prides itself on happy productive relationships.

This tender process is for a new catering services contract, due to start on 15th July 2023, on a 3-year (plus possible +1yr +1yr extension) basis.

The school seeks to source a flexible and best value catering provider, with whom they can partner with to achieve service excellence through the provision of great tasting food, made with authentic recipes and ingredients. Healthy eating, service innovation and added value through food education and sustainability initiatives are equally as important.
