Section IV. Procedure

IV.1) Description

IV.1.1) Type of procedure

Negotiated without a prior call for competition

- The works, supplies or services can be provided only by a particular economic operator for the following reason:

- absence of competition for technical reasons
- New works/services, constituting a repetition of existing works/services

Explanation:

New works and services consisting of the repetition of similar works or services entrusted to the economic operator to which the same contracting authority awarded an original contract, the original contract was awarded following an open competitive procedure, in which only one supplier returned a bid.

Based on the information detailed below, the conclusion is that Ricardo AEA Ltd is the only supplier able to provide these Services to the Environment Agency. To the best of our knowledge and investigations it is concluded that, given the Supplier's exclusive rights (IPR) to the software required to ratify the data, and therefore the Services, only the incumbent Supplier can maintain the existing contract with the Environment Agency.

- Ricardo has confirmed that they own IP in the software they use under the current contract. Further investigation by Environment Agency and Defra via a call to competition has confirmed that there is no competition amongst any potential suppliers and would not be a valid route to market.
- To enable connection between the data collection and Supplier software, it would appear that a new supplier would have to develop their own software package for data ratification and this would critically have a significant disruptive effect on business-as-usual Environment Agency data reporting of Hydrocarbons monitoring measurements for UK requirements (obligations must be met under AQSR regulations).
