Description

Young People Services:

Ty John Rowley (Supported accomodation)

Ty'r Fro (Supported accomodation)

Tom Holmes (Floating Support)

The Supporting People Programme funds, monitors, reviews and commissions housing-related support services which are a high quality, strategically relevant, cost effective and reliable.

The aim of the supporting people programme and therefore housing related support services is, through the provision of support to:

- Enable vulnerable people to increase or maintain their independence.
- Meet the needs of people who have experienced homelessness.
- Meet the needs of people who may be threatened with homelessness in the absence of housing related support.
- Maintain individuals tenancy and accommodation.

Housing related support services are complementary to a variety of existing care, support and mediation services, they should work alongside and co-operate with these services, but also recognise that they are unique in the support they provide.

Housing related support services will be led by the service users identified needs and outcome focused. The service specification describes the service that will be delivered, the desired outcomes that are expected and the process that will be followed. The service specification applies to housing related support services which are funded by Supporting People Programme Grant only.
