II.1.4) Short description

The West Midlands (WM) Investment Readiness programme aims to address demand-side weaknesses in Small to Medium Enterprises (SME) access to external finance in the West Midlands. They are usually focused on equity finance (i.e. raising capital in exchange for an ownership share), but local programmes in England have also covered debt finance (e.g. applying for bank loans). The WM Investment Readiness Programme will include both equity and debt finance which will support the growth and scale up plans of the WM SMEs.

The WM Investment Readiness Programme will support WM SMEs in the following ways:

- Provide WM SMEs with a road map of the investments that suits their growth plans
- Provide strategic support for WM SMEs to understand the investment process and the in-depth reviews that will be conducted in appraisals for funding streams
- Develop the pitch for each type of investor
- Grow a network of fund managers that can deliver investment
- Reinvest success with continuous provision of a network of funders that can support the next generation of high growth and scale up businesses
