- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder(ADHD) Assessment Service

The ICB are looking to host a Market Engagement Event with potential providers via Microsoft Teams on Thursday 22nd February 2024, timings to be confirmed.

The Service will consist of:

- Providing a specialist assessment and diagnostic service to adults with a suspected ADHD residing within the local areas as defined by the ICB commissioning boundaries.
- This service is for the triage ,assessment, diagnosis and establishing treatment for adult patients with ADHD symptoms and is designed to provide a safe and effective service within the community to patients across STW with a suspected ADHD diagnosis which may require pharmacological and/or non-pharmacological treatment for ADHD as appropriate on confirmed diagnosis.
- This service will assess and diagnose individuals with suspected ADHD across STW who do not have serious mental health comorbidities.

To provide a safe and effective service the service will:

- Provide initial assessment and timely diagnosis of ADHD in adults and establish a treatment plan to include pharmacological and/or non-pharmacological treatment which also addresses the individuals psychological, behavioural, and occupational or educational needs.

- Provide relevant advice, guidance, support and signposting to appropriate organisations and other professionals as appropriate.
- Initiation of medication that aligns to NHS STW ICS local health formulary: Formulary(shropshireandtelfordformulary.nhs.uk).
- Provide the specialist element of oversight of prescribing including all baseline physical health checks and ongoing monitoring as appropriate as detailed by the Integrated Care Protocol (ICP) prior to transfer/acceptance to oversight/monitoring service or any other appropriate provider.
- Provide guidance on self-help strategies and recommendations for individuals in support of self-care.
