‘It takes a whole village to raise a child’

At Easthampstead Park Community School, their vision is to provide an outstanding education for all students which fully prepares them for life beyond school. They aim to develop learners who are happy, healthy and equipped in every way to deal with the challenges and opportunities they will face in the future. The values of respect and pride are central to their school. They have high academic aspirations for all of their students, but also believe that education is about far more than just achieving outstanding academic results in examinations. They seek to develop students who have a strong sense of community, both locally and globally, who are confident, able to lead others and bring about positive change. They work hard to foster a strong three way partnership between parents, students and the school and believe that having these bonds is essential if their pupils are to achieve their full potential.
