Contract Title: Market Engagement for Facilities Management Services

Description: Essex County Council (ECC) TFM contract is expiring in September 2026. The approximate value is £37m p.a., £22m of which is capital expenditure.

Before launching the formal procurement process for the replacement solution, we are conducting early market engagement (EME) to gather insights from potential suppliers.

Our current contract contains the following services:

- Soft FM Services: Including cleaning, waste management, catering, and security services.
- Hard FM Services: Covering maintenance, repairs, and technical support for building systems.
- Property Management Services: Managing leases, acquisition and disposal, property advice and consultancy.
- Multi-Function Print Devices: Procurement, installation, and maintenance of office printers.

- Programme and Project Management: Coordination of small works projects (between £10k and £0.75m)

- Utility Management: Trade Advice, Energy procurement, Payment of invoices and provision of a central billing service, Management information surrounding usage

ECC plans to hold a series of market engagement events covering all of the above areas.

Purpose of Market Engagement:

The purpose of this market engagement event is to:

- Understand supplier capabilities and innovative solutions.
- Refine our requirements based on market feedback.
- Encourage competition and ensure a diverse pool of suppliers.

How to Participate:

To access all information related to the project and register for market engagement events linked to procurement, please visit the Essex Provider Hub

<https://www.essexproviderhub.org/facilities-management-and-property-re-procurement/introduction/>. This platform holds information on upcoming events, recordings and outcomes from previous events and will publish the latest news related to the project.

Registration for all upcoming events will be managed through this site.

The sourcing platform for this project will be ProContract. A market engagement project has been created to allow providers to ask questions at any point in time, separately to the Market Engagement events. Please register on both Procontract and the Essex Provider Hub to ensure you stay up to date with latest developments and can ask any clarifications throughout the early market engagement stage of this project.
