The Secretary of State for the Home Department, acting through the Home Office's UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI), is the Authority which seeks to award concession Agreements for operators to become approved providers in the UK (Lot 1) of a Secure English Language Test (SELT) aligned to the Council of Europe Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Home Office immigration policy establishes an English language requirement that customers may be required to evidence for UK visa or citizenship applications.

The SELT assesses a customer's competency in speaking and listening and dependent on the route of entry, reading and writing English, between levels A1 to C1 of the CERF. Tests are taken under UKVI-prescribed secure conditions where secure relates to:

1. Processes to verify the identity of the customer;
2. Ensuring that it is only the validated customer who takes the test and does so under exam conditions with an appropriately trained invigilator to eliminate the ability to cheat;
3. Ensuring results are not released until the provider has completed additional verification checks to ensure that collusion and fraud have not taken place; and
4. Ongoing audits, both internal and via external independent auditors, of the physical test points, processes and delivery systems in order to ensure that the security and integrity protocols are being strictly adhered to.

Approximately 133,000 2-facet (speaking and listening) and 30,000 4-facet (reading, writing, speaking and listening) tests were taken in the UK in the period April 2022 to March 2023 inclusive.

The Authority plans to award a maximum of two UK concession Agreements but reserves the right to award to fewer.

4. Ongoing audits, both internal and via external independent auditors, of the physical test points, processes and delivery systems in order to ensure that the security and integrity protocols are being strictly adhered to.

Approximately 58,000 2-facet (speaking and listening) and 495,000 4-facet (reading, writing, speaking and listening) tests were taken across 143 countries (excluding the UK) in the period April 2022 to March 2023 inclusive.

For this tender the requirement spans 144 countries. Only the top 90% by volume for the period April 2022 to March 2023 are shown in the NUTS code field.

The Authority plans to award a maximum of four ROW concession Agreements but reserves the right to award to fewer.

VI.3) Additional information

This procurement will be managed electronically via the Home Office's eSourcing Portal (JAGGAER). To participate in this procurement, participants must first be registered on the eSourcing Portal. <https://homeoffice.app.jaggaer.com/>

If you have not yet registered on the eSourcing Portal, this can be done online at <https://homeoffice.app.jaggaer.com> Please note that, to register, you must have a valid DUNS number (as provided by Dun and Bradstreet) for the organisation which you are registering, who will be entering into a contract if invited to do so.

Registering to use the Jaggaer portal also does NOT provide access to the ITT. Once you have registered on the eSourcing Portal, a registered user can express an interest for a specific procurement. This is done by emailing sts24selt@homeoffice.gov.uk.

Your email must clearly state the following to allow the buyer to locate your details on the Jaggaer system and enable your access to the tender:

1. That you wish to register for " Secure English Language Test Concession Agreement Tender C19512";
2. The supplier name that you have used to register on Jaggaer; and
3. The name and contact details used on Jaggaer for the registered individual sending the email.

The eMail will be processed and then the buyer will enable the supplier to access a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) via the eSourcing Portal. The registered user will receive a notification email to alert them once this has been done.

Once the registered user has completed and returned the NDA via the eSourcing Portal the buyer will enable the supplier to access the independent ITT area via the eSourcing Portal. The registered user will receive a notification email to alert them once this has been done. This is not an automated process and the buyer asks that you are patient whilst the NDA is processed.

We highly recommend that once you complete the NDA and first access the Tender section, that you download and review the " C19512 - Invitation to Tender for The Secure English Language Test (SELT) Instructions to Bidders_READ ME FIRST" found within the 'attachments' section of the eSourcing portal.

For technical assistance on use of the eSourcing Portal please contact the JAGGAER Supplier Helpdesk at customersupport@jaggaer.com or 0800 069 8630 (0800 - 1800hrs).
