II.1.4) Short description

This invitation to tender (the “Tender”) covers the provision of some of the arboricultural works operations for land under the management responsibility of Green Sefton (the “Services”) throughout Sefton Metropolitan Borough Council (the “Authority”). In the main this covers trees within the parks, open spaces, cemeteries, crematoria and trees on adopted highways throughout the Authority.

The aim of this Tender is to set out a framework in the approach to the arboricultural works Services delivery that will assist the Authority’s long-term commitment towards improving the standards and use of its parks and open spaces and the management of its highway trees.

Vision: The Authority is committed to putting parks back into the heart of the community by providing attractive, welcoming, safe, accessible, and sustainable facilities that are valued locally and recognised nationally as amongst the best.

Our objective: Is to increase the number and quality of the Authority’s trees.

For this Tender, this means that the Authority will wish to forge a strong and positive working partnership with the Contractor and share the commitment towards achieving the highest possible quality of arboricultural works and high level of customer satisfaction whatever resources are available or difficulties we may face in delivering the Services.
