II.1.4) Short description

North Ayrshire Council requires providers to deliver person centred support to children and young people (up to and including 18 years of age) enabling them to achieve their outcomes as per their Child Assessment and Plan and Support Plan. Person centred support encompasses personal support, community support and care within the home.

This framework is being reopened at the discretion of the Council, we currently have three Service Providers appointed and we are looking to appoint one Service Provider, as the original documents allow the Council to appoint up to a maximum of four Service Providers.
