North Yorkshire County Council (the Council) is acting on behalf of the Yorkshire and Humber Adoption Consortium (the Consortium) to implement an Approved Provider List (APL) for the provision of Therapeutic Support Services.

The Approved List will run in 2 phases:

Phase 1 - establishment of the approved list, this phase will have a deadline for return of submissions. Service providers have the option to return within this deadline or wait until phase 2.

Phase 2 - Live approved list, once the list is established and those successful service providers have been notified, the application process will re-open and service providers will have the opportunity to submit an application at any time. Please see further details within Section 3.
