Description

Cambridgeshire County Council is part of Commission East, which is a partnership of all 11 Local Authorities in the Eastern Region. Our aim is to create a unified regional voice and foster genuine collaboration with providers. As part of this approach, we intend to co-design and implement a regional framework for Residential and Fostering services.

You can find out more information and contact details for Commission East here:
<https://improvementeast.org.uk/commission-east/>

Our intention is to:

- Build a transparent, co-produced regional commissioning framework
- Share learning and good practice across the region and beyond
- Create a culture of innovation and co-design to develop a responsive care system
