II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The service will provide support for children, young people, parents, and carers with children from 0 to 18 years old. It will also provide practical and emotional support to pregnant women who need additional support in relation to preparing for motherhood. The aim of the service is to provide early help to support children to remain within their families wherever possible by working with parents and carers to improve their ability to meet all their children's needs. If this is achieved, parents and carers will be empowered to manage their parental responsibilities without the need for statutory Social Work intervention in their lives. Services to be provided include support with practical parenting skills, child development, routines/boundaries, behaviour management, emotional support, and community engagement. The service will be flexible to provide support when children, young people, parents, and carers require this support, which is likely to include evenings and weekends. Referrals to this service will come directly from Statutory Social Work services.
