II.2.4) Description of the procurement

East Lothian Council are looking at our options for our future content management system (CMS).

We are considering the replacement of our existing external facing website, additional microsites as well as our intranet(s) for both Corporate and Education staff. Schools and Corporate currently operate on separate networks and separate intranets – it would be preferable to have a single instance of this site accessible to both.

The solution will require to integrate with a variety of systems including our citizen platform and payment systems.
