Community benefits are included in this requirement. For more information see:

<http://www.publiccontractsscotland.gov.uk/info/InfoCentre.aspx?ID=2361>

A summary of the expected community benefits has been provided as follows:

Community Benefits General Policy: Aberdeenshire Council is committed to securing meaningful environmental, social and economic value in procurements and to working with all sectors of the business community in order to achieve increased prosperity. As responsible and ethical buyers, the Council aims to embed the key principles of sustainability into procurement activity for the benefit of society, the economy and the environment. Sustainable procurement provides an extremely effective lever to further local and national priorities.

Please note that offered benefits will be discussed/agreed at mobilisation and must be recorded/reported through an established process. Delivery of community benefits will be monitored during ongoing contract management. As well as the points listed below, the Council understands that suppliers may have other innovative community benefits that do not fall under any of the suggested headings provided. Tenderers are asked to provide details of any additional community benefits that can be discussed/agreed at contract award.

Specific Community Benefits objectives for this procurement are as follows:

Fair Work Practices (FWP)

Aberdeenshire Council is committed to the delivery of high quality public services, and recognises that this is critically dependent on each of the Five Dimensions of the Fair Work Framework (http://www.fairworkconvention.scot/theconvention_whatwedo.html). The Framework sets out the vision that by 2025, people in Scotland will have a world-leading working life where fair work drives success, wellbeing, and prosperity for individuals, businesses, organisations, and society.

Innovation/Case Studies

A case study could include an example of best practice or significant achievement on the project; an example of how innovation has been demonstrated or examples of positive outcomes resulting from the delivery of community benefits. Case studies can touch upon any areas of additional enhancement to project delivery, final product to the Council and/or end user. Case studies can include testimonials from placement participants (including under-represented groups such as disabled persons or care leavers”), address fair work practices, 3rd sector/community assistance or collaboration or general innovation. Can be regarded as an extended press release (available for the Council to use in further communications). The submission and frequency will follow the Contract

Management Framework reporting agreement.
