II.1.4) Short description

The London Boroughs of Camden and Islington are proposing to recommission their respective advocacy services, currently known as the 'Camden Advocacy Service' in Camden and the 'Single Advocacy Service' in Islington.

The aim is to procure one advocacy service for both boroughs, delivered through a single advocacy pathway. Islington and Camden are committed to work closely in partnership with the service throughout its contract lifetime to analyse and manage demand for statutory and non-statutory advocacy. The service will also develop relationships and work in partnership with the wider system of support services in Islington and Camden.
