II.1.4) Short description

This tender is for the desktop PC requirements for the new Faculty of Arts and Humanities building which opens for teaching and learning in September 2022. To achieve this opening date the equipment being tendered for will required to be delivered to our campus in two phases. The first phase of delivery is expected to be required from 25th July to 26th August 2022. The second phase is expected to be required from 17th October to 11th November 2022. These dates will be confirmed post contract award.

As well as supply of the equipment, services will be required to deliver and deploy equipment to desks and carry out the physical installation of the equipment. This will be for new equipment supplied as a result of this tender and for existing equipment that will be decanted into the new building by the University.

This is a competitive procurement, conducted as a call off against the: National Desktop and Notebook Agreement (NDNA) run by London Universities Purchasing Consortium (LUPC); Lot 3 'One Stop Shop' under the Public Contract Regulations 2015. Only suppliers listed under this agreement will be permitted to submit a tender response. Please note that Coventry University is prepared to accept bids from nominated multiple resellers on behalf of Coventry University.
