<https://health-family.force.com/s/Welcome>

This notice from Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust (NUH) is intended to engage with the market and understand if there are any other providers capable/willing/interested in submitting a response to service and maintain the Pneumatic Air Tube System at our QMC Campus, current services provided by Swisslog (UK) Ltd.

NUH is of the view this system can only able to be maintained by the incumbent due to the Transponet Software running the system and all the PCB's (Printed circuit boards) throughout the entire system being Swisslog products. Also the spare parts and/or replacement parts are Swisslog components and cannot be purchased by a third party. NUH intends to proceed with a Direct Award to the incumbent by 18th March 2022 if no other interested parties come forward by 11th March 2022.
